

Join Us for the Fifth Annual National Lung Cancer Screening Day!

This national effort aims to increase access to lung cancer screening – especially for those who may not be able to take time off during the workweek – by encouraging screening centers to open for appointments on Saturday, November 14, 2026.

We invite you to take action by registering your organization to participate.

Together, we can help increase screening rates and save lives.

Learn More:

November 14, 2026

LUNG CANCER SCREENING DAY

Join the Movement
Today!